A photograph of a minimalist desk setup. On a light-colored wooden desk, there is a stack of five white books with a small round clock on top. To the right is a grey geometric pencil holder filled with pens and pencils. Further right is a wooden block and a circular mirror with a gear-like frame. On the wall behind the desk is a framed botanical illustration of a plant with yellow flowers and green leaves. A dark grey semi-transparent overlay with rounded corners is positioned in the foreground, partially covering the desk and the wall. The word "woodart" is written in white lowercase letters across the middle of this overlay, with a thin white horizontal line underneath the "art" portion.

A photograph of an outdoor dining area. In the foreground, a square table with a light-colored top and dark wooden frame is partially visible. On the table, three cacti are arranged: one tall and ribbed, one shorter and ribbed, and one small and round. A dark wooden chair with horizontal slats is positioned behind the table. The background features a wooden fence and some greenery. The ground is paved with large, light-colored tiles. A dark blue semi-transparent overlay covers the right side of the image, and the word "harmony" is written in white lowercase letters across it.
